worried that I had returned home. But I unlocked it anyway and it was only my friend Fred. I told him what was going on in my head and we both had a big laugh.

Then I heard a knock at the door. I was worried it might be me but it wasn't. When I

I dreamed that I woke up and walked into the living room and sat
down at my computer.
Then, when I woke up I was afraid to walk into the living room because I thought I might find myself sitting there.

I Dreamed That I Woke
Up
by Larry Heyl

“This is silly.”, I said to myself, and I went ahead and walked right in and sat at my computer. But then I thought maybe I already left while I was still sleeping. So I got up and locked the door to keep myself from coming in.
